Mrs. E. M. George returned home Monday from Lima, where she spent Thanksgiving and has since been visiting friends.

We had a pleasant call from Capt. W. H. Wetmore, accompanied by Mr. John A. Robertson, Tuesday evening, who rehearshed to us a little of their experience, on skates, forty years ago, when they buckled them on just back of the old jail and skated to where the town of Weston now stands. They did not state that about that time they went to see their girls by this means of locomotion, but we presume they did. The Captain has been brushing the Spacials needles from his clothes, preparatory to Hillabrand's expense, on the latest arrival, a 11 pound girl, this being the third of the feminine persuasion in his family. Distributing the Bible. - Rev. D. H. Woodward is making thorough work in the distribution of the Bible in Wood county. He recently received instructions from the General Superintendent of the American Bible Society, to make a complete canvass of the county by visiting every family-of which there are about 6,000 according to the last census.

We found the reverend gentleman on Tuesday morning at the Exchange Hotel, busily engaged in making out his reports and an order for more Bibles. From him we gathered these interesting facts concerning the result of his labors during the past two months, the figures being taken from his books: During the two months he has visited 1,800 families. Of these he found 51 families destitute of the Bible; supplied 38 with same, also 31 individuals and 2 Salibath Schools. He has sold 270 Bibles and Testaments, organized five branch Bible Societies—first at Bowling Green, Tontogany, Weston, North Baltimore and West Millgrove; traveled 579 miles; preached 26 sermons; Ristributed 85 docuents, and has written 34 letters on official complete records and reports must be kept and made by the agents of this Society; also that there is a field at home for missionary work. If there is not an improve-ment in the morals of Wood county it will not be for the want of a guide or the efforts of Rev. Wordward as agent of the Society. His books range in price from a five cent Testament up to a three dollar Bible.

ED. JOURNAL :- After a few weeks ab ence (up Salt river) your correspondent esumes his pencil to scribble a few items from this locality and I enter upon this task with some misgivings as my health is somewhat impaired by the constant use of "salt water" as a beverage for the last month. But I am in hopes that the substitution of " Hop Bitters " will set me all right again in a short time.

other crops will take the place of the Grant Oak who has held full sway for certuries past. The sudden and unexpected preaches here every two weeks. Mr. R. is 30 2m a good speaker and a zenous it is to be hoped that his efforts may be crowned with success, but if he don't find some tough old sinners at this appointment then you may put me down as a false prophet. The old Methodist Society that has been in existence so long here is about dead and a remarkable display of super-natural power will be required to infuse new life into it.

The ship timber business is booming here, and those who are fortunate enough to have timber to sell are realizing handsome profits therefrom. Your correspondent a few days since was shown one stick which brought the seller $28.

By the way what has become of the JOURNAL Embassadors? If they have not all gone crazy over Garfield's election and been sent to the insane asylum I would like to hear from them through the old OURNAL once more.
Wishing the JOURNAL and all who are connected with it and all who read it a merry Christmas, I remain yours, as of old, Dec. 15, 1880. Gaidigon.
